

As and enthusiastic participant in Indiana's telephone privacy law, I object to anyone doing anything to carve out exemptions or exceptions. The law seems to be working exceptionally well for consumers of Indiana and doesn't need fixing or tampering with by the FCC or anyone else in favor of special interests. Please leave it as it is. Thank you.